

Why is it bad to iron a four-leaf clover? Because you don't want to press your luck. St. Patrick's Day is just around the corner, and we are very lucky to have so many businesses here that will help you celebrate the holiday. From enjoying Irish-themed foods and beverages all month long, to stocking up on your green festive flare, Evermore has you covered:

1. Summit's Wayside Tavern

Want a traditional Irish meal this St. Patty's Day? Summit's Wayside Tavern has been serving Snellville since 1993. Enjoy a corned beef sandwich and a cold Guinness in a friendly, relaxed environment.

2. McDonalds

The only thing better than a Shamrock Shake would be finding a pot of gold at the end of the rainbow. Celebrating its 50th year, Shamrock Shakes are back for a limited time at all Mcdonalds. With 2 locations in the CID, you are only a couple miles away from the minty-fresh classic.

3. Dunkin

Formerly Dunkin Donuts, Dunkin will serve Irish Cream flavored drinks for the entire month of March. Try one with a Lucky Shamrock donut to bring a little luck and joy to your St. Patrick's Day morning.

4. O'Reilly Auto Parts:

Of course, we had to include this one on the list, because O'Reilly Auto Parts officially opened their new location in the district: 2775 Main Street West, Snellville, GA 30078. Stop by this month to see the new facility and check out the great deals they have going on for all your auto parts needs.

5. Lidl

Attending a festival this weekend, or just need some last-minute green to avoid being pinched this St. Patrick's Day? Lidl has you covered. Check out their selection of t shirts, socks, and decorative flare at prices that will surely have you shamrockin' & rolling.
